

AMAZING OPPORTUNITY ALERT

- Are you a young St John member with leadership skills and a sense of adventure?
- Are you passionate about first aid competitions and keen to meet some of our St John colleagues from Singapore?

Travel to Singapore for the Regional Youth First Aid Competitions!

We have a fantastic opportunity for two St John youth members, aged between 18 and 26 years to travel to Singapore and be official Observers of the Regional First Aid Competitions.

The two observers will gather information about the event to prepare for future St John Youth Teams to compete. The successful applicants will need to have a current passport, with at least 6 months validity and be able to be in Singapore from Friday, 21st July until Sunday, 23rd July, 2023. Flights and accommodation will be provided, and competitions and meals will be provided by the host (St John Singapore).

The Observers will explore the event firsthand and prepare a report including their findings upon return. Guidelines for the report content will be provided prior to departure.

What are the criteria?

Successful applicants must:

- be aged between 18-26 years at the time of travel;
- have a minimum of two (2) years' service;
- hold current membership with St John;
- not have previously won the Norma Bell Award; and
- hold a current passport with at least 6 months validity and has the right to travel to Singapore from Australia.

Assessment criteria

Applicants are asked to provide evidence of their contribution to St John and the community. This evidence must include:

- What the actions or contributions to St John are (or how they have made a difference);
- How their actions or contributions have inspired others or the community;
- Their leadership ability (e.g. creativity, self-confidence, communication, interest in and/or concern for others, striving for excellence, helping others to develop or succeed, going above and beyond);
- Previous involvement in First Aid competitions (does not have to be in a competitor role).

Terms and conditions

The successful applicant will have flights and accommodation booked for them by the Australian Office. The successful applicant will not receive a lump sum in payment of prize money but may receive an amount on account of incidental expenses. Applications must be received by 5pm on Wednesday, 31st May, 2023.
